

DOUGLAS NEWS NOTES.

Back to Chicago.

H. S. Matthews, who had charge of the Calisher sales during the past ten days, left this morning for Chicago. Mr. Matthews is connected with the firm of C. N. Harper and Co., which makes a specialty of conducting special sales for stores in every section of the country. Mr. Matthews expressed his admiration for Douglas and hopes to have the opportunity to visit the city again in the future. He was gratified with the success of the Calisher special sales.

Orchestra Reorganizes.

The Van Allen orchestra which was so popular last season has reorganized for the season of 1909-10 and will be prepared to furnish music for all occasions just as it did last fall and winter and spring. The personnel of the orchestra is unchanged with the exception of one man.

Buys New Home.

Court clerk John Igo yesterday purchased a home for his family. He has bought the Jarr place on Greene street with a fine pressed brick residence.

Ruptured Blood Vessel.

The autopsy and inquest on the body of Francisco Valenzuela, who dropped dead on fourteenth street yesterday, developed the fact that the cause of death was a ruptured blood vessel on the brain. Valenzuela had been in the city about three months and was a painter employed by Ellison Bird, who says he was a good workman.

Spanish Class Completed.

Sufficient applications to insure the class in Spanish at the Y. M. C. A. have been received and more are coming. The books have been ordered and one of the best classes on any subject ever organized in the local association is assured.

Two Mexican Drunks.

Two Mexicans were before Justice this morning charged with disturbing the peace. They received 10 day sentences.

Transferred East.

H. D. Jones, of the Southwestern, has been transferred to the eastern division and leaves tomorrow with his family for El Paso.

Go to McNeill.

The ladies of the Erie Valley Women's Club went to McNeill this morning to spend the day with Mrs. Martin.

Grindell on the Job.

Secretary Grindell returned from his vacation this afternoon on the train arriving at 2:30 and proceeded.

Mrs. Della Thompson son Lutes

Mrs. Della Thompson Lutes has devoted the recent years of her life to social purity problems and has accomplished a remarkable work.

She is deeply interested in the movement in behalf of social purity, and especially that phase of it which insists that children shall have all proper knowledge relative to self and sex. She is to be one of the principal speakers before the national Purity Congress, which convenes in Burlington, Ia., in October. This will be a most remarkable gathering of reformers, religious and social workers from all sections of America. The congress is held each year under the auspices of the National Purity Federation, of which B. S. Steadwell, La. Crosse, Wis., is president, and Judge Ben B. Lindsey of Denver, Colo. vice president.

Will Build Residence.

On his trip up here which ended today Frank M. Watts, manager of the Wheeler Land company stated that he should buy three or four residential lots in Douglas and would erect a home on them, the building to cost $4000 to $5000.

Paint Jail Red.

Jailer Moore yesterday had two prisoners painting the woodwork and stairway of the jail a bright vermilion.

DOUGLAS PERSONALS

Prof. Krinbill was a passenger on this morning's train for Bisbee.

C. W. Hicks, treasurer of the county, was a visitor in Douglas last night, returning to Tombstone this morning.

M. Zeller went to Bisbee this morning after several days spent here looking after his extensive piano business.

Col. D. H. Johnson arrived yesterday from his Silver Creek ranch. He says that so far as the range is concerned the cattlemen have reason to be satisfied with present conditions.

O. S. Gibson, of Tombstone, returned to his home this morning, after enjoying the intellectual feast provided by the Douglas Chautauque during the last two days. Mr. Gibson says that Douglas should be proud of its record made in securing the chautauque.

An "English" Town.

If any town deserves to have a passport, it is surely Bury St. Edmunds, says London Country Life. Probably it is the most characteristically English and agricultural town in Great Britain, and it is a place delightful to be in, being so free from the noise, smoke and turmoil inseparable from our great manufacturing cities.

Venus Calva.

The ancient Romans at one time knew a Venus the Bald. The goddess was worshipped by that name in a particular temple after the invasion of the Gauls—the reason assigned for this strange fact in antiquity having been that the brave women of Rome cut off their hair to make bowstrings for the city's defense.

Talking Woman is Robust.

A man who figures has sent to the national bureau of statistics some facts of speech. He estimates that a woman talks eight times as much as a man; that she utters on an average 2,500 sentences a day, whereas only 300 come from him. He asserts that the woman who is a great talker is invariably robust and full chested.

Feud Simply Settled.

In western China European travelers recently found a simple method of settling disputes. One of them writes: "While we called the midday halt at Ta-chade, we asked the villagers concerning some new graves which we noticed in a field close by. They answered: 'Our head man and two others were killed three months ago in a feud with a village higher up the hills. Is it settled now?' 'Yes.' 'Did you report the matter to Lao-wo?' 'No. What would have been the use? We just settled the matter ourselves.' 'How?' 'Oh, we killed eight of the other party.'"
